

List of seventy-eight defendants indicted in U.S. District Court District of Indiana Case #1492 (Schmitt et al)

1. Abe Klyman, Klyman Brothers liquor distributors of Henderson, Kentucky
2. Abram "Abe" Cohn, Cohn Brothers dealers in meats, groceries, and fish
3. Adam Hausman, milk salesman
4. Amos D. Riggs, saloonkeeper
5. Andrew B. "Andy" Friedle, police captain
6. Arthur R. Booth, city council president
7. Ave Lamb, police boat mechanic
8. Benjamin F. "Tex" Roberts, proprietor of the Mint Springs Hotel
9. Cal Pickerill, saloon owner and brother of Van Pickerill
10. Cap Jones, hotel & restaurant owner
11. Carl Dreisch, secretary to Mayor Bosse, city food inspector
12. Carl G. Schulz, saloonkeeper, proprietor of Schulz Drug Co
13. Caulder McCoy, post office truck driver
14. Charles "Broadax" Smith, police detective
15. Charles J. "Irish" Ruhl, saloon owner and republican deputy sheriff
16. Charles J. Klein, saloonkeeper and proprietor of drink stand
17. Charles Rothschild, meat salesman
18. Charles Sihler, proprietor of Lottie Hotel and Chairman of Republican County Central committee
19. Charles Thompson, saloonkeeper
20. Clarence Bullock, tool salesman
21. Clarence Wilhelm, fisherman
22. Clem Goedde, grocer and saloonkeeper
23. Dave Wolf, saloonkeeper
24. Edgar Schmitt, chief of police
25. Eli Harp, fisherman
26. Elmer E. "Babe" Kappler, garage owner
27. Emil E. "Booty" Geiss, saloonkeeper
28. Enoch "Enie" J. Weir, bailiff of Vanderburg County Court, police detective
29. Ernst Rieger, saloonkeeper
30. Eugene "Gene" McKinney, jailer of sheriff's office, police boat operator/mechanic,
31. Frank J. Diehl, saloonkeeper
32. Fred Haffendorfer, saloonkeeper, manager of Long Branch, political worker
33. Fred Ossenber, grocer at Baptisttown and republican leader
34. George "Doc" Peters, driver for Louis Heberer
35. George C. Schnarr, saloonkeeper
36. Gilbert Roy Fray aka Jack Fray, saloonkeeper
37. Gustav "Gus" Neubling, saloonkeeper
38. Harry Helmrich, saloonkeeper
39. Harvey Boyd, partner with Kappler in the Boyd & Kappler garage

40. Henry Deig, Saloon and general store operator and Postmaster of Armstrong, Indiana
41. Herbert Evans, motorcycle policeman, meat shop proprietor
42. Herbert Males, sheriff
43. Herman "Henry" Brinkman, driver for Pelz Transfer Company
44. Herman Steinhilber, New Vendome Hotel manager
45. Hershell Burris, restaurant/gambling den proprietor
46. Jake Skipper, worked for Mead Johnson
47. James Boner, gambler
48. James Trautwein, plain clothes moral/vice squad detective
49. John Arnold, fisherman
50. John James, coal hauler
51. John W. "Cotton" Miller, U.S. Deputy Marshal
52. John W. Heyns, Heyns Furniture dealer, secretary of the New Vendome Hotel Company
53. Joseph Barnes, police boat operator, engineer
54. Joseph Killian, saloonkeeper
55. Lloyd Buttermore, saloonkeeper/soft drink dispenser
56. Louis Heberer, Water Street produce commission dealer and saloon owner
57. Louis J. Schmidt, saloonkeeper
58. Matt Olinger, saloonkeeper and shoe repair shop
59. Mose Klyman, Klyman Brothers liquor distributors of Henderson, Kentucky
60. Ollie Woodruff, restaurant owner and saloonkeeper, election registrar
61. Otto Durre, saloonkeeper and wholesale liquor dealer
62. Otto Klein, saloonkeeper and proprietor of drink stand
63. Porter White, Carpenter
64. Richard "Dick" Pennington, saloonkeeper at Eighth and Mulberry streets
65. Rube Becker, saloonkeeper
66. Sam "Spec" Campbell, restaurant proprietor and resort keeper
67. Sol Cohn, Cohn Brothers dealers in meats, groceries, and fish
68. Stanley "Harry" Bennett, husband of Vernon Bennett who operated the Three Trays brothel
69. Van Pickerill, wholesale liquor dealer at Henderson, Kentucky
70. Walter Pelz, owner of Pelz Transfer Company
71. William "Bingie" Davault, chief electrician of the fire department
72. William "Doc" Oehlman, saloonkeeper
73. William C. "Puss" Meinert, Democrat Equality League president & Superintendent of Streets
74. William Fuchs, plain clothes moral/vice squad detective
75. William Morris aka Butch Hayhurst, police detective
76. William Perrett, motorcycle policeman
77. William Schoepflin, of Henderson. Klauer Beer Garden
78. William Wimberg, Wimberg Dray company & president of the local Order of Eagles